COMMEMORATIVE MEDALS OF LENIN

The Lenin theme holds an eminent place in the creative endeavors of Soviet medalists. The large number of medals carrying Lenin's portrait that has been put out in the Soviet Union since 1917 attests to this. The Leningrad and Moscow mints have produced more than 380 commemorative, anniversary and souvenir medals in the period of 1917-69, and the image of Vladimir Lenin can be seen on more than 60 of them.

The medal Leniniana started in 1919, when Dmitri Stepanov, the doyen of engravers of the Petrograd Mint, produced a medal in honor of the second anniversary of the October Revolution (Photo No. 1). On the obverse side he placed the portraits of Karl Marx and Vladimir Lenin; around them the inscription was chased: "Russian Socialist Federative Soviet Republic, Petersburg 1919." The reverse side of the medal carried an allegorical image of emancipated labor and the inscription: "Workers of the world, unite!"

Though this work has shortcomings both in composition and plastic solution, it occupies an important place among Soviet medals as the first piece on a Lenin theme.

Noteworthy among the works of medal art in the twenties was "Lenin's Last Hiding Place near the Sestroretsk Station, July 17, 1971" (Photo No. 2) by Academician Anton Vasyutinsky. The author depicted Lenin writing near the campfire on the obverse side of the medal, while the reverse side contains an excerpt from the book "State and Revolution" that Lenin had written at the time.

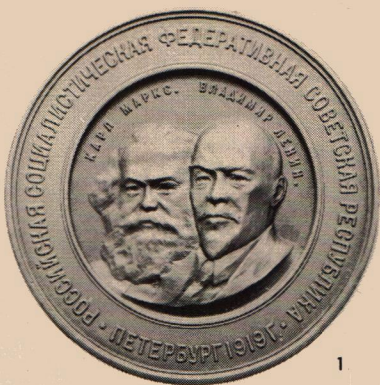

Characteristic of the work of Vasyutinsky is the smallness of the plastics, a fondness for detail, and a general genre.

Artist Alexander Kozlov also dedicated a medal to this event in Lenin's life (Photo No. 3).

One of the oldest medalists in our country, Honored Worker of Art of April 22 was the centennial of Lenin's birth. As Moscow's Time correspondent reported, "A flood of books, articles, paintings, plays, movies, symphonies, posters, busts, lapel buttons, and even special candy bars washed over the Soviet Union." Neither has the field of numismatics been overlooked. This presentation of Lenin medals is an effort to acquaint the reader with current medallic art in Russia and not an introduction to any political philosophy. Photographs and text were prepared expressly for The Numismatist by Anatoli Shatan, Novosti Press Agency, for the centennial occasion.

the Russian Federation Nikolai Sokolov, has made a large contribution to the Soviet art of medaling. Among his best works there are quite a number of medals depicting Lenin.

One of this maestro's medals (Photo No. 5) is devoted to the victory scored by the Soviet Army in World War II, as a result of which the enemy blockade around Leningrad was raised on January 27, 1944.

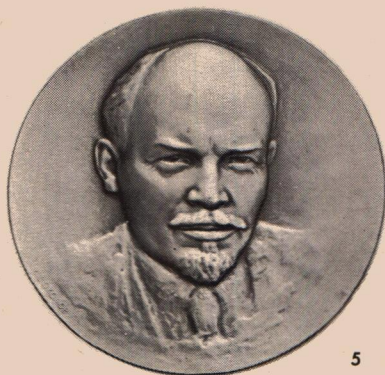

Portrait medals marking Lenin's 90th and 100th birth anniversaries (Photos Nos. 6 and 7, respectively) have been created by sculptor Sokolov.

Also noteworthy is the medal dedicated to the Young Communist League of the USSR, which was made in accordance with Sokolov's design. On the reverse side of the medal (Photo No. 8) the sculptor depicted Lenin among the delegates to the Third Congress of the YCL. Noteworthy in this creative endeavor is the skillful composition of the entire scene in the circle, the expressiveness of individual figures, and the thorough processing of the plastic form.

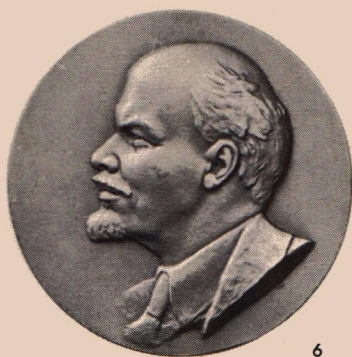

A whole series of 12 medals devoted to Lenin's life and activities was put out in 1962-63. The author of these medals, Honored Artist of the USSR Matvei Manizer (1891-1967), has created through the medium of medal art a story illuminating the most important moments in Lenin's life and the revolutionary events in which he participated and which he led. Using both the obverse and reverse sides, the Academician sculptor produced 24 compositions. On the medal in Photo No. 9 Ulyanov (Lenin) is shown during his university days. Already at that time Lenin (his real name is Vladimir Ulyanov, and Nikolai Lenin is his literary and political pseudonym) took an active part in the revolutionary movement.

A portrait of Ulyanov-Lenin, the founder of the revolutionary newspaper Iskra in 1900, carried by the medal in Photo No. 10, is dedicated to this period of Lenin's life and revolutionary activities.

"Lenin in October" (Photo No. 11) depicts Lenin in the days of 1917 when the fate of the Russian revolution was being decided. A sailor, worker and soldier with arms in their hands, who had accomplished the Great October Socialist Revolution in Russia on the call of Lenin, are depicted on the reverse side of this medal (Photo No. 11a). The last medal of the series is called "Lenin in Moscow" (Photo No. 12). It shows Lenin standing against the background of the Kremlin towers, and the reverse side (Photo No. 12a) contains three portrait reliefs of Marx, Engels and Lenin, and the year MCMXXIV, i.e., 1924 — the year of Lenin's death.

The author of many memorials to Lenin, sculptor Manizer used his experience as a monumentalist to the full extent in his work on these medals. It is therefore by no means fortuitous that many of the compositions of this series are close to Manizer's monumental sculptures in their solution.

The medal marking Lenin's 90th birth anniversary (Photo No. 13) is the work of sculptor Leonid Belokurov (1914-1966). The medal's composition attracts attention with its graceful and laconic style.

Working in the dynamic and free manner of modeling, sculptor M. Shmakov succeeded in creating psychologically expressive portraits of Lenin on the medals dedicated to the 50th anniversary of the first issue of the newspaper Pravda (Photo No. 14) and the Great October Revolution (Photo No. 15).

No. 17) — these two events were well depicted by sculptor Marina Eshba on a medal dedicated to the 40th anniversary of the USSR Armed Forces and by medalist and engraver A. Kozlov on the work "Fiftieth Anniversary of the Great October Revolution."

Also noteworthy as successful medals are the one by Iuliana Rukavishnikova marking Lenin's 95th birth anniversary (Photo No. 18), one by sculptor Vera Akimushkina marking the 50th anniversary of the USSR (Photo No. 19), and that by the young artist Bernard Staris on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the YCL (Photo No. 20).

The medals shown on the photos Nos. 1, 2, 4 and 5 are now a great rarity.

At the meeting of the board of governors last February, several important decisions were made concerning the future of ANAT. These must be told to the ANA membership so as to answer implications of inaction by ANA that are said to have appeared in subsequent pronouncements publicized by persons prominently positioned with the ANAT fund drive.

After reviewing a report that ANAT seemed to be stalled less than half way below the $50,000 goal in donations which was set up as the minimum requirement for starting the authentication service, and being told that unless the balance to be raised could be obtained soon, there was no other recourse than to refund all donations to the donors, the board of governors decided to take steps to save ANAT from failure.

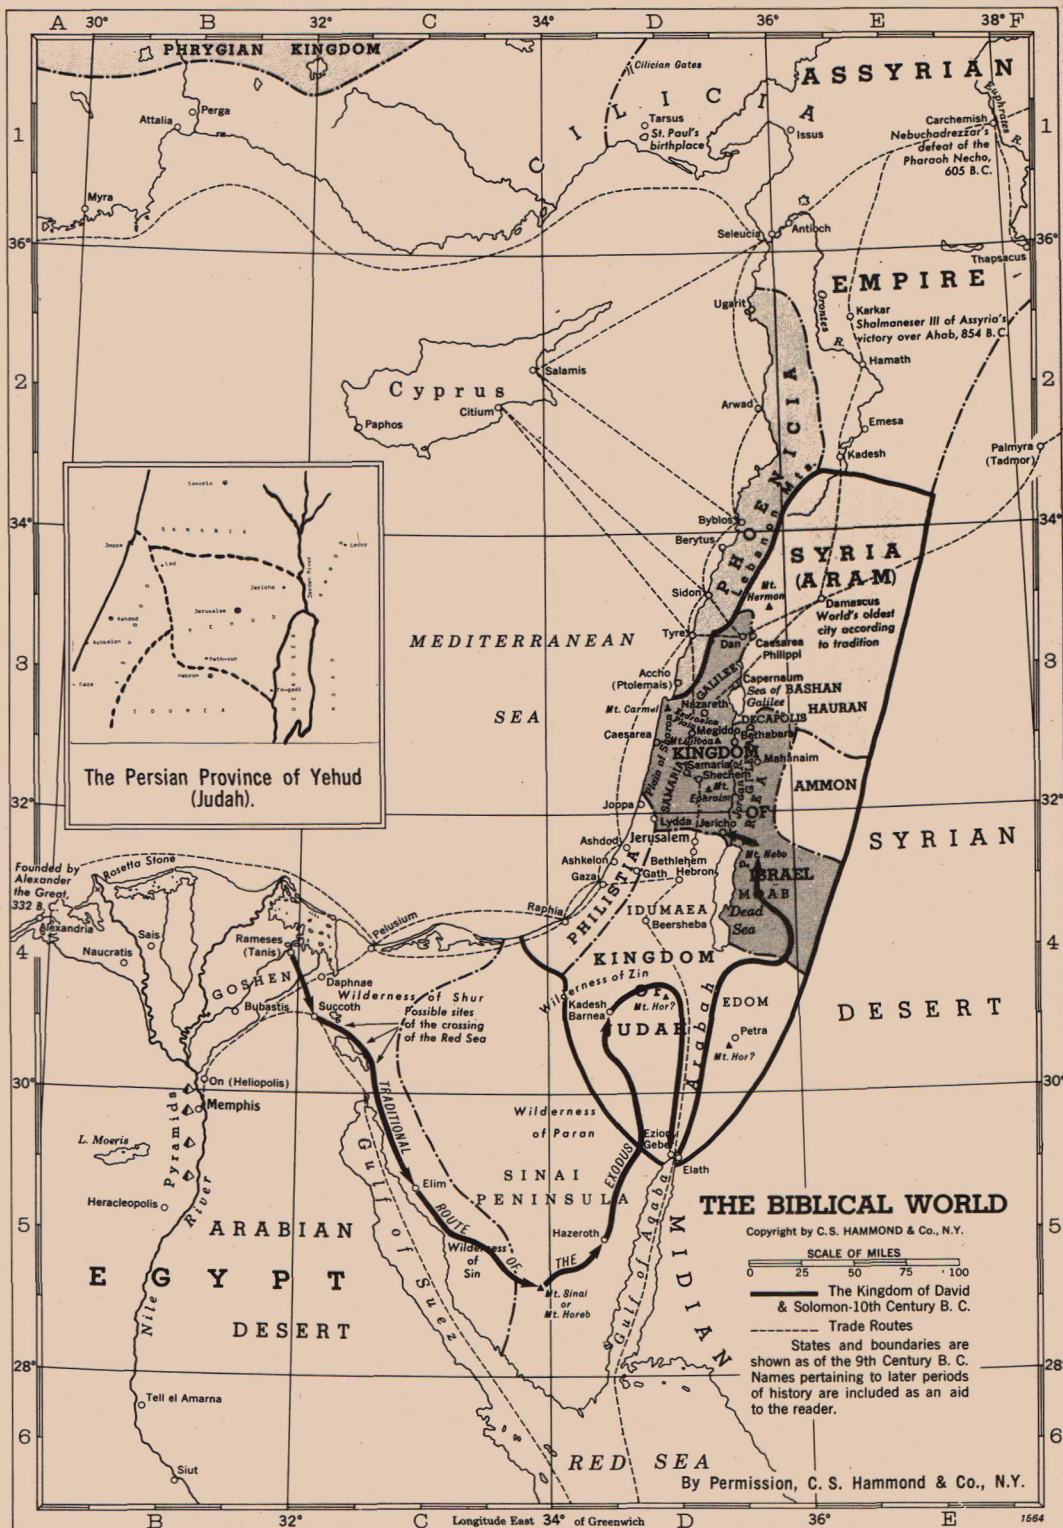

It first considered a proposal made by ANAT trustees to assess ANA members $1.00 per member at the next dues paying time. Assuming no members would be lost because of opposition to assessment, this would raise nearly half the amount needed to reach the ANAT goal. The board voted against any assessment for reasons that this would force members to pay for a service that would be extended to collectors who are not ANA members, and that ANA would have no vote or control over operation of a service largely financed by its members.

During discussion by the board, it was brought out that many ANA members withheld donations to ANAT as long as it was not to be operated under ANA control, even though ANA recommended that donations be made and actually assisted in raising much of the money received by allowing donors to make tax deductible gifts to ANA and passing these on to ANAT. As an example of those withholding support to ANAT, an offer was made by a member of the board to personally make a conditional pledge of $5,000 to ANAT provided that ANAT would be taken over by ANA and dealers would make similar pledges to help underwrite the balance needed to make up the $50,000 required to start the authentication service.

Finally, by unanimous vote, the board of governors passed a motion stating that ANA will officially assume the functions and operations of ANAT providing the consent and concurrence is obtained from the trustees now operating the fund.

ANAT trustees were promptly notified of this action. No objections were heard from them, but formal steps have not yet been taken by them to effectuate a transfer from ANAT to ANA. There is nothing more that ANA can do until the trustees have responded to the offer that was made. The future of ANAT now rests with its trustees.

royal symbol discovered on Judaeon coin

THE discovery of a unique ancient Judaeon coin has forged another link between numismatics and archaeology, and promises to shed new light on the earliest period of Jewish coinage.

This coin was presented to the Judah L. Magnes Museum in Berkeley, California, by the renowned sculptor, Victor Ries. It is the oldest Jewish coin in the United States and an extremely important addition to the museum's collection of Judaic numismatics. Ries had received the coin from the German monks of the Dormitio Monastery in Jerusalem shortly before they were sent to British detention camps at the beginning of World War I.

The tiny silver coin has an embossed design on only one side; the other side was originally blank but has since had an "X" scratched on it. The "X" is probably an ancient banker's mark testing the quality of the silver.⁽¹⁾ The design consists of an owl, body facing right, head facing front; in the left field is a three-pronged plant, commonly considered to be a lily, above it are two Greek letters. In the right field there is the remarkable numismatic inscription: a symbol plus YHD (Yehud), in ancient Hebrew.

The owl was copied from the famous coins issued by Athens for hundreds of years, starting in the sixth century. The symbol, which first appeared to the author to be a triangle,⁽²⁾ upon closer examination is, rather, the left portion of a diagonally-divided rhombus.

by Mel Wacks, ANA 35884

The author, Mel Wacks, is the numismatic consultant of the Judah L. Magnes Memorial Museum, Berkeley, California. The coin discussed here was the star attraction of the Chase-Manhattan Money Museum's 1970 Passover-Easter display in New York, and will be featured at the Convention of International Numismatics (COIN), in Los Angeles, California, June 19-21, at the Hilton Hotel. In conjunction with the exhibit, Dr. Seymour Fromer, president of the Magnes Museum, will be the main speaker at the meeting of the Israel Coin Club of Los Angeles.

estine during the sixth to fourth centuries B.C. Yehud encompassed the cities of Lod in the northwest, Jericho in the northeast, Beth-zur in the southwest and En-gedi in the southeast; its capital was Jerusalem. It was bordered by Samaria on the north, by Ammon and Moab on the east, by Ashdod on the west, and by Idumaea on the south.

There are several other "Yehud" coins known; three are listed by Reifenberg⁽³⁾ and six by Meshorer.⁽⁴⁾ And half of those Yehud coins catalogued by Meshorer are blank on one side! The relationship between this symbol-Yehud coin and the other known Yehud coins will be discussed later in this article.

TET SYMBOL: 'ARCHAEOLOGICAL BACKGROUND

The question as to the meaning and significance of the rhombus symbol is not to be found in numismatics, but in epigraphy. For the diagonally-divided rhombus (or much more commonly the diametrically-divided circle), known as the "tet" symbol, is well known in combination with the Hebrew letters Y H D on stamped pottery handles from ancient Judaea.

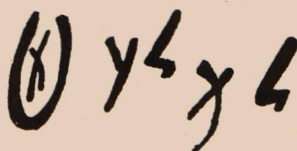

Tet-YHD inscriptions on round pottery handle stamps.⁽⁵⁾

Older stamps, recently brought to light, have Lapidary Aramaic inscriptions with most of the letters mirror-imaged; they must be read in a counter-clockwise manner to obtain the tet - Y H W D reading.

Lapidary Aramaic tet-YHWD inscription on pottery stamp.⁽⁶⁾

The tet-symbol appeared in even an earlier form on some L M L K (lammelekh = belonging to the king) jar stamps. These LMLK jars, found in Elephantine, have been dated to the fifth century B.C.E.; the symbol is in the form of the Phoenician letter teth.

teth K L M L

Phoenician teth on LMLK jar inscription.⁽⁷⁾

As to the meaning of these jar inscriptions, according to Cross⁽⁸⁾ they were probably an indication or guarantee of standardized capacity for the vintners who supplied the crown. Avigad believes that the Lammelekh jar inscriptions and the tet-Yehud jar stamps, "represent parallel formulae referring respectively to the royal fiscal service and the provincial fiscus of Judah in the time of the Persian rule."⁽⁹⁾

As to the origin of the sign, Lidzbarski⁽¹⁰⁾ surmises that the Phoenician teth represented the final degradation of the royal solar-disc symbol; by the time it was used on the jars the original meaning had been lost and it was regarded as a teth ; hence it was written in Aramaic legends also as an Aramaic teth .

The weight of the teth -Yehud coin (0.6467 gram) is in close agreement with the silver obols issued in the same general period at the nearby Gaza mint in the Phoenician territory of Ashdod.⁽¹¹⁾ However, it is heavier than the other small Yehud-inscribed coins known.⁽¹²⁾ This brings to mind Scott's⁽¹³⁾ theory of the "royal shekel." Referring to Judaeon stone weights engraved 𐤇 , 𐤇𐤍 , 𐤇𐤍𐤅 and 𐤇𐤍𐤅𐤍 , Scott stated, "the royal emblem 𐤇 marked, not simply an official standard for the single shekel in use, but a 'royal shekel' which differed from the common shekel and probably was larger." Similarly, Yadin⁽¹⁴⁾ defines the 𐤇 as "belonging to the king" or "royal," and writes that, "the symbol does not stand for shekel but simply indicates that the weight is 'royal' (i.e. official)."

The teth -symbol, like the symbol on the weights, is a royal emblem guaranteeing a standard measure and is most appropriate on a coin of the realm.

GREEK LETTERS

The two Greek letters Α E (or Λ E) which are lightly engraved in the field to the left of the owl's head seem, most likely, to be a corruption of the inscription on the Athenian coins — A Θ E. Other corruptions of these Greek letters occur on some of the Philistine and Arabic copies made during the fifth to fourth centuries B.C.

Hili's comments on coins issued at the Philistine mint of Gaza are particularly pertinent to the present discussion: "The first letter of the inscription (simulates), by the dot in its centre, ... the Θ of the inscription A Θ E on real Attic coins, so that when (the legend is complete $\text{Α} \text{Ζ} \text{Θ}$), the resemblance to A Θ E is very close."⁽¹⁵⁾

This interpretation might also account for the appearance of the teth -symbol on the Magnes Museum's coin. To a "Judaeon-eye,"⁽¹⁶⁾ the Greek theta could easily be mistaken for the teth -symbol. Thus the engraver, whose task it was to copy the "foreign" coin, might have hesitantly included the two strange symbols ΔΕ along with the rest of the original coin's design (owl and lily), and he moved what he thought to be the royal teth -symbol to its rightful place, as he knew from the pottery stamps, alongside the Yehud inscription.

YEHUD COIN FAMILIES

The tet -Yehud coin belongs to a sub-family of the Yehud coin-group which exhibits symbols and/or Hebrew letters, but no human or divine figure. Speaking of one of these coins Kindler wrote: "I assume that (the) coin belongs to a group of 'Yehud' coins, minted probably by Jewish authorities at the end of the Persian period, where the obverse is unminted so as to avoid using the portraits of human beings (conflicting with Jewish tradition) which we find on the regular issue of the 'Yehud' coins."⁽¹⁷⁾

It would seem that the tet and other names or symbols were used on the earliest Judaeans coins in lieu of the "missing" portrait in deference to the Commandments: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image."⁽¹⁸⁾

Contrasting with the idolatrous representations of men or gods on the other Yehud coins, the symbol plus Yehud coins would have been acceptable for the Jewish Temple-tax and probably were produced for this purpose.

identity of the die cutters, Kindler states: "They may have been of local origin, for gem-cutting in Palestine had a long-established tradition, which can be traced back at least into the 9th century B.C.E."

25th Anniversary of Poland's Battles for Freedom Noted

The Polish American Numismatic Association of Chicago presents a commemorative medallion on the 25th anniversary of Poland's battles for freedom in 1944. The 62mm medal is limited to 300 sterling and 700 bronze copies. The obverse marks the 63-day heroic fight to liberate Warsaw from the Germans. Thousands died while the Soviet army remained passive and refused any aid. The monument of King Zigmund III is shown, this was erected in front of the Royal Palace in 1644 and symbolizes the city's history as the Polish capital. The reverse notes the battles for the Allied cause fought by Polish soldiers in Western Europe — Monte Casino, Arnheim, Falaise. Further details are available from PANA, 5029 S. Ashland Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 60609.

Meet Me in St. Looie, Looie!

The air waves are coming alive with these familiar words as August 18, 1970, draws nearer and nearer, bringing with it the American Numismatic Association 79th Anniversary Convention which will convene at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel in fabulous St. Louis—Gateway to the West and convention city par excellence!

Registration chairman Charles Hileman reports the hotel already is receiving reservations almost daily as eager conventioners take early steps to insure housing accommodations, many for the entire convention period of August 18-22.

Hileman and special events chairman Marvin Burnette urge early registration for both the convention per se, and the special events to avoid long queues. Pre-registrants will find complete packets awaiting their convenience upon arrival, enabling them to get on with their convention business and pleasure promptly.

Hileman points out that a separate registration card must be filled out by all persons over 11 years of age, and cautions everyone to read the form carefully and follow instructions explicitly, again to avoid confusion and delays. Forms in various numismatic publications may be used, or may be requested from Hileman. Checks should be made payable to ANA 79th Anniversary Convention and mailed to Hileman at P. O. Box 714, Granite City, Illinois 62040. Pre-registration deadline is August 1, 1970, after which none will be accepted until Monday, August 17, when on-the-spot pre-registration will operate from noon until 9 p.m. at the rear of the hotel first floor lobby where pre-registration packets also may be claimed.

Although ANA-accepted bourse dealers already have been registered automatically, they too must complete a registration form for special events reservations. Local bourse chairman John S. Stevenson, 19 Ro-clare Lane, St. Louis, Missouri 63131, should be apprised promptly of names of bourse assistants so proper pre-registration arrangements may be made, as no one will be permitted behind a bourse table without the official convention badge and bourse ribbon. Exhibitors, too, must be registered to gain advance entrance to the exhibit room. A record is being maintained of all pre-registration requests received to date to whom appropriate forms will be sent promptly upon their completion.

In addition to many other exciting events, newly-appointed hospitality room chairman, Mrs. Maurice Kaufmann, reports plans to evidence daily in goodly measure that old mid-western hospitality beginning with a Get-Acquainted Coffee Klatch for the ladies from 9 to 10 a.m., Tuesday, August 18. From then on throughout the convention, the room will reverberate with echoes of bridge and other amusement and hobby parlance, and just plain chit-chat as our charming ladies compare notes of the days' events. Football buffs will be especially pleased to know that arrangements have been made to show at various intervals on Thursday afternoon (while the ladies are wining and dining elsewhere) an official 16mm color sound motion picture production of "1969 St. Louis Cardinal Football Highlights" being furnished through the courtesy of local radio station KMOX and your hospitality committee.

Tours and Special Events

Tour chairman Burnette has arranged for various tours at frequent intervals so all may participate. He reports that since tickets for both events are non-returnable, which poses a problem in event of inclement weather, no group reservations will be made for either the Municipal Opera or the St. Louis Cardinal baseball games. However, he will be glad to collaborate in arranging for individual tickets on a personal basis by special request to him at 1214 Danville Drive, St. Louis, Missouri 63137. The opera will be featuring for the entire convention week, opera star Robert Merrill performing in the sensational musical triumph "Fiddler On The Roof." The St. Louis baseball Cardinals will be playing Los Angeles beginning at 8 p.m. the nights of Tuesday and Wednesday, August 18 and 19.

Burnette points out that tour prices include transportation and all admittance fees.

St. Louis Grand Tour. A comprehensive 3½ hour tour of city major points of interest will take passengers through the downtown shopping, business, and financial district, the historical section of the city, and on to the levee of the Mighty Mississippi for a fine view of its boats and bridges. After a glimpse of the Greek revival style home of the famed children's poet, Eugene Field, the tour will visit the Falstaff Museum to enjoy displays of brewing items covering 128 years brewing history; then proceed to the world famous Shaw's Garden housing the unique Clima-tron, the first geodesic dome greenhouse ever built, containing a wide variety of natural tropical settings with special weather controls that produce weather according to exhibit needs. A tour of the lovely 1,379 acre Forest Park will follow for a view of its many lakes, fountains, statues, zoo, art museum and the renowned Municipal Open Air Theatre. Guests will be conducted through the Jefferson Memorial wherein are exhibited an outstanding collection of worldwide Lindbergh Trophies commemorating Charles Lindbergh's memorable trans-Atlantic flight; then return via the university and fine home district of west St. Louis and suburbs.

Grant's Farm - Busch Brewery. This 5-hour tour will take visitors to the magnificent estate of August A. Busch, Jr., where guests will board a miniature train for a conducted tour of 281 beautifully landscaped acres, passing the original log cabin farmhouse of General Ulysses S. Grant, and visiting the Bauernhof, a replica of the farm estates of Europe. Both young and old will enjoy the Carriage House housing one of the most valuable world-wide collections of coaches and carriages, the harness, track and trophy rooms containing many cups and ribbons won by the champion Clydesdale horses of the Busch stable, and the zoo with its variety of trained animals. A "Dutch Treat" snack will be available. Leaving Grant's Farm, the tour will proceed to the Anheuser-Busch Brewery for a conducted visit before returning to the hotel. It is suggested that the ladies wear low heels or comfortable walking shoes.

Gateway Arch - River Boat Huck Finn. This 4-hour trip, including a ride to the top of the unique 630' Gateway Arch, our nation's tallest monument, combined with a delightful ride on the Motor Vessel Huck Finn, replica of 19th century stern-wheelers, is expected to rate high on the sightseer's agenda. Each leg of the arch operates a 40-passenger train consisting of 8 five-passenger capsules mounted like baskets of a ferris wheel to permit a smooth and level ride inside the climbing curve of the arch, from the top of which may be seen breathtaking views of both sides of the Mississippi. The arch, designed by the late Eero Saarinen, memorializes the spirit of the pioneers who settled the West after the Louisiana Purchase. The one-hour narrated trip aboard the Huck Finn will point out many shoreline marks of early St. Louis.

National Museum of Transport. This 4-hour trip will transport guests into the county where they will see an outstanding open-air display of locomotives, railways cars, automobiles, streetcars, buses, trucks, horse-drawn vehicles, and related items portraying the history of the technology and design of transportation and communication implements. Old and young alike will enjoy playing engineer as they actually sit in old-time locomotive cabs, walk through railroad cars housing exhibits of by-gone transportation days, board a double-deck bus, or walk into a railway tunnel. Sport clothes, including slacks and low heels for the ladies, are "musts" for this tour which will enchant you with its informality.

St. Louis Zoo. A sea lion show, world-famous monkey show, and a 2½ acre Children's Zoo housing an animal nursery will highlight a 4½-hour zoo trip to famed Forest Park. Miniature trains, with intermittent station stop-over privileges, will transport passengers over 1½ miles of narrow gauge track through 2 tunnels, past the 1904 World's Fair walk-through bird cage and other zoo areas. Slacks and low heels are recommended for this delightful safari.

Charlotte Peters TV Show. The first 50 ladies who apply each day will enjoy audience participation in an actual telecast of the popular Charlotte Peters Show Tuesday and Wednesday. A modest size auditorium limits audience size, so get your reservation in promptly. A light complimentary snack follows the telecast.

Ladies' Luncheon. Our ladies will embark promptly at 10:30 a.m., Thursday, August 20, for Noah's Ark, one of the area's most unique restaurants situated close to historical St. Charles, Missouri's first state capital. Featured will be the popular unique Heritage Style Show. Many a lady's heart will skip a beat as turn-of-the-century gowns from Paris, elegant afternoon dresses, handbags, gloves, underpinnings, and a wedding gown of 1874 made from 60 different lace motifs by 16 different hands at the fabulous cost of $4,000, parade within a fingertip's touch of milady. There will be other surprises too, so get your reservation in early as guests are limited to 250.

Biafra

The civil war is over in Nigeria. The suffering has somewhat subsided, but one more record of man's inhumanity to man will haunt us for a long while to come. Juliette de Jekel seems to have captured the suffering of a young child in her medal produced by the Paris Mint. The obverse of the 81mm bronze piece shows one of the main victims of the fighting in Biafra, a dejected child, drawn to represent the image of famine. Graphic symbols of the Biafran war are depicted on the reverse. Available from the Administration de Monnaies et Medailles, 11 quai de Conti, Paris VI, France, the medal cost $8.60 plus postage and handling.

NEW & RECENT ISSUES

by Ernst Kraus, LM 129

It is the important duty of The Numismatist to record and illustrate new coins. To accomplish this, members in the United States and abroad are invited to submit new issues to Ernst Kraus, Room 939 (include room number in address), 393 Seventh Ave., New York, N.Y. 10001. Coins will be photographed and returned as soon as possible, and a credit line will be given to anyone assisting.

Bermuda

The government of Bermuda has released a silver dollar as part of its new decimal coinage. In keeping with the mother country, England, the Bermuda Monetary Committee, recommended not only a change from pounds sterling, but a complete switch to the dollar system including naming the coins to correspond with the American equivalents bearing in mind the large influx of American tourists annually. The other denominations in this series were reported in the January 1970 issue of The Numismatist, p. 18. The coins were all struck at the Royal Mint in London.

The People's Republic of Bulgaria, part of the Balkan Peninsula, carries the name of a people that first appeared in history toward the end of the 5th century A.D., the name being applied to some of the many non-Indo-European tribes that followed the wake of Attila the Hun's invasion. Modern Bulgaria, though, is less than a century old. Independence came with the Russo-Turkish War of 1877-78, following over 500 years of Ottoman Turk rule. Two recent commemorative coins allude to the 90 years of independence that Bulgaria has since experienced.

Y-71. 1 lev, 1969. Copper-nickel. Obverse: monument to the Russian Czar Alexander II on horseback, erected in recognition of his aid in liberating Bulgaria from Turkish domination in 1878; dates to each side, 1878-1968. Reverse: value in center of wreath, 1 lev; date below 1969; legend around, Narodna Republika Bulgaria, in cyrillic letters. Diameter 27mm. Weight 8 grams. Edge milled.

Y-72. 2 leva, 1969. Copper-nickel. Obverse: taken from the painting by Alexander Popov showing Bulgarian and Russian soldiers defending the Shipka Pass against the Turks in the Russo-Turkish War of 1877-78 that led to the independence after 500 years of Turkish rule for Bulgaria; dates 1878-1968 below. Reverse: similar to preceding except for size and value. Diameter 30mm. Weight 11 grams. Edge milled.

Canada

One of Canada's three "prairie" provinces, Manitoba stretches from Hudson Bay and the Northwest Territories on the north, to the United States border on the south. Over a quarter of a million square miles in area, the province can boast but 6 incorporated cities, 35 towns, 37 villages, and 112 rural municipalities, all with a combined total population of less than a million people. It entered the Canadian Confederation under the Manitoba Act of the Canadian Parliament in 1870 and this year is celebrating the centennial of that event. To mark it, the Canadian government has issued a commemorative dollar. The Royal Canadian Mint offers sets of uncirculated coins to collectors including the Manitoba dollar. Sets sell for $4 each and must be ordered in quantities of one, three, five, or multiples of five. Payment must be made payable in Canadian dollars. Further information can be obtained by writing: Coins Uncirculated, P. O. Box 470, Ottawa 3, Ontario, Canada.

Czechoslovakia

This small country, with little to celebrate at the present, is observing the 50th anniversary of the Slovak National Theatre at Bratislava. This group has played an important part in the development of Slovak culture and the striking of a commemorative coin is an expression of the high esteem for the theatre as a constituent part of culture. 50,000 coins were struck and of this amount 5,000 were reported to be of "proof quality" giving the coin an interesting half-tone feature. The coins were struck at the state mint at Kremnica and the unusual design originated from the co-operation of sculptor Zdenek Kolar-sky and painter Ivan Strnad.

Y-81. 25 korun, 1970. Silver (.500). Obverse: the state emblem, a Hussite shield with the Bohemian heraldic lion with Slovak emblem on its chest; all on a square panel; numerals 25 below, and on the remaining three sides, CESKOSLOVENSKA / SOCIALISTICKA / REPUBLIKA. Reverse: presenting theatrical symbols embodied in a square, a broad perspective view of a stage framing Muse's head crowned with a wreath, giving a cosmopolitan appearance to the unusual coin; legends 1920 NARODNE above, SLOVENSKE at left, DIVADLO at right, and V BRATISLAVA/1970, at bottom. Diameter 30mm. Weight 10 grams. Edge unknown.

The Gambia

The Gambia can surely claim recognition for being one of the most unusual of Commonwealth nations — it's almost all border. The Gambia consists of 300 miles of river, a wide estuary and a strip of land varying from 7 to 15 miles wide on each side of the river and with the exception of a short stretch of Atlantic Ocean on its coast line, the country is entirely surrounded by the Republic of Senegal. As can be expected, the river plays an important part in the transport system of the country. Being navigable by small craft for its entire length, it is the country's main highway. One of the "pedestrians" encountered on the "main highway" is the hippopotamus, an indigenous animal in The Gambia. An eight-shilling coin, showing a hippo on the reverse, has been introduced in keeping with The Gambia tradition of market exchange units being in multiples and fractions of four shillings. Struck at the Royal Mint in London and designed by R. C. Elderston, a limited issue of proof silver, as well as cupro-nickel coins has been struck.

Y-7. 8 shillings, 1970. Cupro-nickel. Obverse: the traditional portrait of the Queen to right; legend across lower part, THE GAMBIA/1970. Reverse: hippopotamus partly submerged; value in English above, 8 SHILLINGS; repeated in Mandinka and Wolof script below. Diameter 41mm. Weight 33.5 grams. Edge milled.

Y-7a. 8 shillings, 1970. Silver. Same as preceding.

Iran

Iran's contribution to the Food and Agriculture Organization's Coin Plan is a 10-rial piece with a quotation from the Shah himself. "Who sows wheat sows truth," is taken from Zoroaster's holy book, Avesta, and quoted in the Shah's modern writings on agrarian reform. Struck at the Imperial Iranian Mint at Tehran, single coins are available to collectors in limited quantities from Bank Markazi, Tehran, Iran. Interested collectors should write for price details.

Y . 10 rials, 1969. Copper-nickel. Obverse: portrait of the Shah to left; legend, all in Persian, above, "Mohammed Reza Shah Pahlavi Aryamehr, Shahinshah of Iran." Reverse: lion and sun crest, surrounded by rice; legend above, "Who sows wheat sows truth," in Persian; 10 rials, also in Persian; FAO below; and below that, 1348-1969, the former the Hejirah solar year, the latter the Gregorian date. Diameter 28mm. Weight 6.8 grams. Edge milled.

Israel

The Israel government plans to issue annually, following Rosh Hashana, a legal tender coin with a nominal value of 10 pounds. This special Pidyon HaBen coin will be available in both proof and uncirculated condition, the former being struck in San Francisco, the latter in Jerusalem. Pidyon HaBen is the concept of redemption by which the father redeems his first-born son with five shekels, thus releasing him from priesthood to which all first-born sons are dedicated. A booklet on the Pidyon HaBen coins, along with information on how to obtain them, can be had by writing: Israel Government Coins and Medals Corp., 850 Third Avenue, N.Y. 10022.

Y-51. 10 lirot (pounds), 1970. Silver (.900). Obverse: coat-of-arms in shield at upper left; at upper right Gregorian date 1970 and Hebrew date 5730, the latter in Hebrew; across center, 10 Lirot Israeli, also in Hebrew; along the bottom edge ISRAEL, repeated again in Hebrew and Arabic. Reverse: symbolic design for the Tablets of Law; legend below in Hebrew, "All the First Born of Thy Sons Thou Shalt Redeem;" below that, "Pidyon HaBen Coin." Diameter 37mm. Weight 26 grams. Edge plain.

Japan

The government of Japan has announced that Expo '70, the first Asian international exposition, which opened in Osaka on March 15, will be noted with the issuance of a special 100-yen coin. Further, collectors will be able to obtain in a set of uncirculated six-coin sets directly from the Japanese Mint. The limit on these sets per person is five and they sell at $2 per set including registration and mailing. Payment may be made in the form of an international postal money order. Orders should be sent by airmail and the outside of the envelope noted, "Order sheet enclosed." One should give his name and address, his nationality, and the order should note that an international money order has been issued for payment. Address to order is: Japanese Mint Bureau, 1, Shinkawaski-chu, Kita-ku, Osaka, Japan.

Y- . 100 yen, 1970. Copper-nickel. Obverse: Mt. Fuji as depicted by the famous 19th century artist, Hokusai Katsushika; in Japanese characters, Dai Nippon (Great Japan) above, 100 yen below. Reverse: a globe over which is carried the symbol of Expo '70, a stylized five-petalled cherry blossom representing the five continents taking part in the exposition. Diameter 28mm. Weight 9 grams. Edge milled.

Nepal

Nepal was founded in the latter half of the 18th century when the ruler of the principality of Gurkha forged a unified country from a number of small states. The whole is sometimes referred to as the "Gurkha Kingdom." It was from here that Britain recruited the brave and famous fighting men, "the Gurkhas" for its Indian Army and even today, both Britain and India, are permitted to recruit Nepalese nationals for their armies.

Y-61a. 50 paisa, 1969. Copper-nickel. Obverse: Devanagari legend above and in a square frame enclosing a trident in a circle, Shri Shri Shri 5 (3 Shri 5 times); Mahendra Bir Bikram Saha Deb, the name and titles of the present king; Samvat date below, 2026; various Buddhist religious symbols to each side; the sun and moon at top. Reverse: an upright sword with garland; legend above, Shri Bavani; value written out below, Pachas Paisa, and Nepal, all within an inner circle; legend in the outer ornamental circle, Shri Shri Shri Gurkha Natha (Great Ruler of the Gurkhas). The inscription on the above specimen reverts to a previously used and enhanced title for King Mahendra, adding the numeral 5 (pancha) after the three shri and before his name. This was not used on the larger planchet variety of the Samvat years 2011-23 (Y-61). Thta planchet was 25mm in diameter and weighed 5.7 grams. Diameter 23.4mm. Weight 4.8 grams. Edge milled.

The Netherlands

An issue of five million coins is planned to mark the 25th anniversary of the liberation from German occupation in 1945. The silver to be used for these commemoratives will be taken from about 20 million silver guldens withdrawn from circulation sometime ago.

Y-64. 10 gulden, 1970. Silver (.720). Obverse: portrait of the Queen to right; legend around, JULIANA KONINGIN NEDERLANDEN. Reverse: portrait of former Queen Wilhelmina to left with legend, NEDERLAND HERRIJST (uprisings) plus value indication, 10 G. and 1945-1970 and mintmarks for Utrecht. Diameter 38mm. Weight 25 grams. Edge lettered, GOD ZIJ MET ONS (God be with us).

Ras al Khaima

The Trucial States on the Persian Gulf derive their name from the Truce of 1835 by which the sheikhs along the coast agreed to abstain from sea piracy. The plunder of two British vessels led to the naval action that preceded the "voluntary" agreement on the part of the sheikhs.

The seven independent and sovereign states comprising the Trucial States are: Abu Dhabi, the largest but mostly desert; Dubai; Sharjah with Abu Musa Island and the Dhayd Oasis; Ajman; Umm al Qaiwain; Fujairah, which consists of only a few villages; and Ras al Khaimah. The names are familiar to stamp collectors and soon will be with coin collectors, as well. They have just discovered the buying power of the numismatist and collectors should see a score of irrelevant issues.

Y-1. 1 rial, 1969. Silver (.640). Obverse: two crossed flags in center, two small daggers above; Gregorian and Hejirah dates below. Reverse: values and legends in both Arabic and English; value in center circle 1 RIAL; in outer circle GOVERNMENT OF RAS AL KHAIMA in English below, in Arabic above. Diameter 20.5mm. Weight 3.9 grams. Edge milled.

Y-2. 2 rials, 1969. Silver (.835). Similar to preceding except for size and value. Diameter 25mm. Weight 6.5 grams. Edge milled.

Y-3. 5 rials, 1969. Silver (.835). Similar to preceding except for size and value. Diameter 32mm. Weight 15 grams. Edge milled.

Coins were struck at the Austrian Mint, Vienna, and all specimens thus far seen are counterstamped ASSAY.

Rhodesia

One more step in Rhodesia's assertion of independence from Britain has been the removal of Queen Elizabeth's portrait from the obverse of the coins. She has been replaced with the coat-of-arms of the white supremacist government of Ian Smith. The new coins have been struck at the South African Mint at Pretoria.

Y-5. 1/2 cent, 1970. Bronze. Obverse: Coat-of-arms in center; Thomas Sassen, the designer, has placed his initials, T.S. below at right.

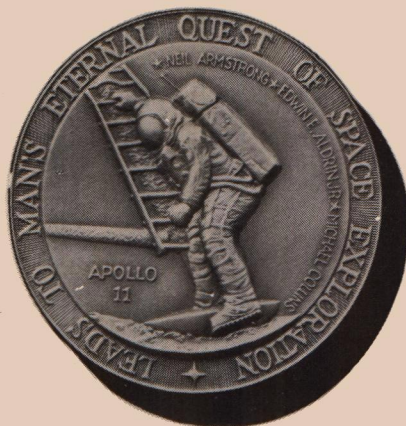

Y-6. 1 cent, 1970. Bronze. Similar to preceding except for size and value. Diameter 23mm. Edge plain.

Society of Medalists Feature Apollo-11

Apollo-11 and modern technology are featured on the 80th issue of the Society of Medalists. This is only the second time in the 40-year history of the society that a current event has been the feature of a medal. The 74mm bronze medal was designed by Boris Buzan and struck by Medallic Art Company of New York. Obverse displays a large "V" superimposed over five figures, representing the ground technicians and engineers, as seen through a television tube. Reverse shows Neil Armstrong's famous first step on the moon.

Since the official PPIE medals can be considered as companion pieces to the convention badge pendant, they are included in this catalogue listing. In the reference, So-Called Dollars, by Hibler and Kappen, these medals are listed as: H-K 399 — silver, H-K 400 — bronze and H-K 401 — gilt.

It was because of the exposition, and the world-wide interest that it would demand, that the ANA decided to conduct their convention in San Francisco. It was felt that by going to the west coast for the first time that this would ultimately result in gaining new members and numismatic groups into the ANA fold. Since most of the membership was centered in the eastern section of the United States, the convention was poorly attended by members. Most of the convention arrangements were made by ANA past president, Farran Zerbe, and the host society which he helped organize in June, 1915. Zerbe also served as the chief of the Official Coin and Medal Department of the exposition.

The 1915 convention badge is considered the rarest of regular badge issues. It is the second issue to utilize a nameplate as part of the design and the first which was issued with the attending member's name inserted therein.

September 1 was officially recognized as American Numismatic Association Day by the exposition and in accordance with that designation presented the ANA with 3-inch medal. The inscription on the reverse was engraved and the medal was produced by Shreve & Co., local engravers. Similar medals were presented to all societies holding conventions in that city during the exposition.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

"Mr. Munsell, of Albany, N.Y., has issued proposals to publish a volume with the title of 'The Castorland Journal,' embracing incidents of travel and facts concerning the French settlement in 'Castorland,' on the Black River, in Lewis and Jefferson Counties, N.Y., in 1793-96. By Franklin B. Hough. This is the company for whom was struck what is now well known as the 'Castorland Medal.'"

DO YOU HAVE THE ORIGINAL?

On your left, above, you'll see the genuine 495th year of the Yi Dynasty (1886 AD) "One warn" of Korea, a pattern piece of white metal alloy, never minted in silver nor introduced for circulation.

In Japanese Coinage on page 120, Norman Jacobs and Cornelius Vermeule picture this pattern coin as J-V No. AA-101. In The Coins of Korea on page 43, Alan D. Craig lists it as his No. 14, and gives the history of this pattern.

On your right, above, is a silver, die-struck counterfeit specimen, withdrawn in April '70 from a European auction sale when it was learned that it was a fake, such as has been offered privately at some of the big USA shows the past four years. I have seen it twice.

The differences between the genuine and the counterfeit I won't mention, because the counterfeiter then simply would make a more faithful set of dies.

A Souvenir Boeki-gin

Next, below, you see a silver die-struck 1969 copy of the 1875 AD (8th year of the Mei-ji Era) Japanese Trade Dollar. And a beautiful coin it is!

Apparently made as a souvenir for the tourist trade at Japan's 1970 exposition, this full silver coin is sold in a very attractive case and, to those reading Japanese, on both surfaces are incused warnings that it is a reproduction.

However, so few USA dealers or collectors read Japanese that I expect this piece to hit the USA market and be sold as, and at the price of, an original BU Trade Dollar of 1875 AD.

In the obverse's oblong incused section, to your right of the word FINE, are two Japanese characters, the upper being "fuku" meaning "to repeat" and the lower character being "sei" meaning "to manufacture" which, in combination, reads "reproduction."

On the reverse, two incused areas are beneath the ribbon bow. The translation of the ancient style character in the incuse to your right? "Official" perhaps? But, in the left incuse, there are two characters reading from your left to right, "jun" for "purity" and "gin" for "silver" meaning, of course, "pure silver."

We must credit Japan with honesty in stamping the Japanese for REPRODUCTION. But, since English is almost a world-wide language, it would have been helpful if the English word COPY also had been incused. In fact, it'd be mighty helpful if the Western Hemisphere makers of "replicas" would be so honest and would incuse COPY into their wares!

Report on Young Numismatists Committee

by Clarence G. Gould, Chairman

For the Junior

This has been a busy year for myself and even more so for the committee. They have to work with the clubs and the juniors of their areas as well as keeping me informed what they have done.

The fruits of their many donated hours is showing up in the membership. By the time you read this we'll be over 690 members and we now work hand in hand with many groups such as the scouts, YMCA, boys' club, etc.

Each and every year our regular ANA members are becoming aware of the youth program and are coming forward to help again this year. New awards are being offered to the young exhibitor of U.S. and foreign displayed at the convention. These will be given by Gordon Z. Greene and Jim Betton. The Societe Commemorative de Femmes Celebres, again this year, will present a plaque to the outstanding adult leader in junior activities. The Lewis M. Reagan Award will be presented again in behalf of the beloved former general secretary. Also the Debbie Jane Gould award will be given to a deserving young person as well as the Outstanding Junior Award donated by Mrs. Hazel Lindstrom. All of these are donated by individuals interested in the youth of the ANA and always the ANA donates the ANA Junior Literary Award. Another gold type set has been offered by an anonymous donor with our thanks.

Hundreds of letters have been answered by all of us on the committee in regards to how can I join? Is there a club near me, etc.? We have several programs we're working on now trying to make things better for the juniors. We are trying to classify juniors by groups so their age and schooling merits are closer. A correspondence course is being initiated to help teach them, a program to give more awards on the club level is now available, and the "How To" is now on a monthly printing for the committee so they can keep closer communications with each other.

We are attempting to have a representative from each state so we can increase relations between clubs and the ANA and the many advantages that are offered.

It's been said before that the wheels of progress move slowly and so it seems to me sometimes, but if we keep trying and overcome our mistakes and problems as they appear, I am sure we will come out on top and be able to have one of the best junior programs in the United States.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

"The Rev. Henry Baylies, of Davenport, Iowa, has the original copper plate from which the L4 Bill of the Colony of Rhode Island was struck, March 18, 1750. Collectors by sending an equivalent can obtain a specimen in exchange; this is, however, an unauthorized statement, but our belief."

THE TOKEN COLLECTORS' PAGE

Help Wanted!!

The ANA's Dictionary of Numismatic Terms defines a "maverick" as an unidentifiable specimen, period. Well, here's a bunch of mavericks that with your help can become identified and attributed to their proper places in the token field. We are asking our readers to study these carefully and if one can shed any light on their origin to drop the author a line: Melvin Fuld, 6701 Park Heights Ave., Apt. 1D, Baltimore, Maryland 21215. We'll publish any relevant information at a later date.

Obverse: Eagle with spread wings, head to left, shield on breast surrounded by nine stars; date in exergue, not legible.

Reverse: Around, LET THE EAGLE FLY. J.S.G.S.L.C.; sunburst in field.

Metal: copper. Size: same as large cent. Border: no. 5; edge, semi-engrailed and plain. Issued: ? Rarity ?

The above photographs were sent in by Ed Jannis of New York, who wrote, "Enclosed is an obverse and reverse photo of a token that really has me bugged. The eagle on the obverse is not unlike those on the Loomis' pieces. The engraver is not unlike True. Cannot make out the date in the exergue. On the reverse, 'Let the EAGLE fly.' Reverse sunburst — Mexican, Peru, & other S. American countries similarity Texas? ... any ideas?"

While the piece looked familiar, I could not positively identify it, so I forwarded the photo to several South American experts and the consensus was "I am sorry to say that I have never seen anything like the token in the photographs you sent. I haven't the slightest idea about what it might be."

The piece is similar to several pieces seen in Scoville Museum but the curator was unable to identify the above piece. Until someone advises origin, what the piece was used for, etc., it cannot be classified.

Obverse: MIL./S.B./ornament.

Reverse: In field, spread eagle head to left; in talons, olive branches.

Metal: copper, originally lacquered. Size: 12 (19mm). Border: no. 5; edge, no. 1 — rounded. Issued: about 1880-1900. Rarity 7.

This piece was forwarded by Calvin C. Woods of Minneapolis, Minn. He felt that the piece was used in Milwaukee and that it was of the Civil War period. This is in doubt on several counts. The die work of the eagle seems to be of a later period. Most eagles of Civil War had either arrows in their talons, along with olive branches. The border of the piece seems to be of the period 1880-1900. The lacquer coating, although worn off of the eagle's breast, rim and lettering suggest the type that Scoville used in 1880-1910. Their finishing gave similar appearances. As for Milwaukee, it is a very likely prospect because of the MIL. The die work is excellent. Anyone having any knowledge of this piece please communicate with the author.

Obverse: either AH, HV, HA or VH with hole in center.

Reverse: C $\frac{2}{0}$ and to left $\overline{5}$.

Metal: nickel. Size: 11 (17.5mm). Dia. of hole 2 (3.2mm). Border: no. 1; edge, no. 1. Issued: ? Rarity: ?

The above specimen was sent in by J. L. Knabenschub of the Carnegie Museum, Pittsburgh, Pa., for identification as to type and what initials stand for.

The writer's guess is that C $\frac{2}{0}$ stood for Canal Zone but what $\overline{5}$ or $\underline{5}$ stood for, I have no idea. Mr. Knabenschub felt that the reverse could mean 20 cents, or centavos, centisimi, etc. The obverse could be AH as well as VH to which the writer added HA or HV.

The token was made on the American scale, as its diameter is exactly $\frac{11}{16}$ inches.

Anyone having any knowledge of this or similar pieces, please advise either J. L. Knabenschub or the writer. Till it is identified, no classification will be given.

Obverse: Around, ROBERT JARRELL JR*.

Reverse: 1/BUCKET.

Obverse: Around, R. J. & SONS*.

Reverse: 1/BKT.

Metal: brass. Size: 16 (26mm). Border: no. 5; edge, no. 1. Issued: 1920-1930. Rarity unknown.

These two pieces are owned by Howard T. Cort, a consulting engineer. Mr. Cort feels that they were issued in exchange for a bucket of beer. It appears the RJ stands for Robert Jarrell and, apparently, either at his retirement or death, his sons took over the business. Mr. Cort also feels the tokens were issued in eastern Pennsylvania, probably Philadelphia.

The pieces are typical trade checks and were no doubt manufactured by different die sinkers. The writer feels they are either oyster or pickers tokens. Can anyone help identify these pieces?

Obverse: In five lines, GRUM / $\triangle$ $\triangle$ HOME / ∇ ∇ / BAKERY.

Reverse: In four lines, GOOD FOR / ONE / 5c / LOAF OF BREAD.

Metal: aluminum. Size: Octagon 14.25 (23.8mm). Border: no. 4; edge, no. 1. Issued: 1910-1920. Rarity 6.

From Thomas L. Wall, Anchorage,

Alaska, came this unusual "bread token." Very well executed and nicely struck. This has to be a pre-World War I token because of the price of a loaf of bread. The wording on the reverse is an interesting style of trade check.

numismatic vignettes

- In the "Index to The Nummatist, Volumes 1 to 51," there are four articles listed under "Portugese Joe." How many members can tell me who that well-known author was? Obviously, that was not his real name.

- A regular columnist started his offering in the Chicago Daily News thus: "Hardly anybody does not have a favorite..." Now, what was he trying to say? Could it be he meant simply: "Almost everybody has a favorite..." If so, why did he start with a double negative? It seems to me that the English language is confusing enough without deliberately making it worse. Or do you not disagree with me?

- A number of coins have become well known through literature and history, but not so familiar is a certain farthing of circa 1878. In that year James McNeill Whistler sued John Ruskin for libel, claiming 1000 pounds damage. Ruskin's statement relative to one of Whistler's paintings had been published as follows: "I have seen, and heard, much of cockney impudence before now; but never expected to hear a coxcomb ask two hundred guineas for flinging a pot of paint in the public's face." The verdict was in Whistler's favor; the damages awarded — one farthing. It is said that the belligerent artist carried the farthing with him ever after.

Speaking of artists, it seems fitting that one of Victor D. Brenner's finest medallic works is a rectangular medal honoring Whistler. On the reverse is a peacock and the phrase "Messieurs les Ennemis," expressing Whistler's conviction that all gentlemen were his enemies.

Howard D. Gibbs

ANA 1951

Howard D. Gibbs, 75, noted collector of odd and curious monies of the world, died March 11, 1970, his birthday. The Pittsburgh collector had authored many works for The Numismatist from the period of 1919 through 1942. Retiring in 1951, Gibbs devoted much of his time to his specialties of siege and counterstamped coins, and odd and curious. He travelled around the world many times in search of material for his collections. He was a member of the 1965 Numismatic News Alaskan Adventure Tour.

Howard Gibbs joined the ANA in 1917 and was awarded his 50-Year Gold Membership Award in 1967. In 1949 he received the 25-Year Continuous Membership medal. He started collecting on his seventh birthday in 1902 and during the years from that time he met and was familiar with such other numismatic greats as Howland Wood, Farran Zerbe, Moritz Wormser, George Bauer, George Marlier, Lyman Low, O. P. Eklund, Wayte Raymond, Frank Duffield, Dr. John M. Henderson, George Clapp, Tom Elder, Henry Chapman, the Stacks, the Schulmans, Douglas Ferguson, and many others.

In addition to ANA, Gibbs belonged to many other groups including the Sphinx Society of Pittsburgh. —JWO.

F. J. Holthaus

ANA 834

Francis Joseph Holthaus, 93, of Seneca, Kansas, died on March 27, following a short illness. He was born in Muhlen, Oldenburg, Germany, in 1876. In 1891 he was granted permission from the Military Department of Oldenburg to immigrate to the U.S. and to become an American citizen. He arrived in Denver, Colorado, the same year and became a typesetter apprentice for the Colorado Journal, a German language daily. In 1897 he moved to San Francisco where he took the position of clerk in a general store and at the same time engaged in a rare coin and stamp business.

Mr. Holthaus joined the ANA in 1906 being sponsored by Dr. Heath, founder of the organization. He was given the status of Golden Member in 1956. His numismatic specialties included the study and collecting of coins from the German states of Bremen, Osnabruck and Oldenburg. He also collected coins of the Papal States and U.S. gold.

Mr. Holthaus is survived by his wife, Centa, nine children, 25 grandchildren, and 17 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by two brothers.

Jerry L. Wangler

ANA 18951

Jerry Wangler, 74, of Niles, Ohio, died at his home on Feb. 25, after an illness of six months. He was born in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Wangler was one of the founders and a charter member of the Niles YMCA Stamp and Coin Club and a charter member of the Warren Stamp and Coin and the ANA for 25 years. He was elected the assistant vice president of the Warren Club just before his death. This group donated a sum of money to the national association as a memorial to him.

Mr. Wangler's later years were spent working with young numismatists. He is survived by a daughter, two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Also surviving are six sisters and a brother. —MG.

BOOK REVIEWS

Words are wise men's counters, they do but reckon by them; but they are the money of fools. American Journal of Numismatics, 1870.

One of the best signs of the time, one that points to numismatics being recognized as the science that it is, is the quality of the new references being published. Both in content and production, the new books are masterpieces. Several such masterpieces have crossed the editor's desk in recent months for review. This month we have chosen to present to you those that concern paper money alone. This is a fast growing field and books such as these can only spur that growth on. — Ed.

TEXAS OBSOLETE NOTES AND SCRIP by Bob Medlar. 204pp. Illustrated. Cloth cover. Society of Paper Money Collectors, pub. R. A. Glascock & Co., Box 8192, San Antonio, Tex. 78208. $10.50.

The Society of Paper Money Collectors has undertaken the task of publishing a series on obsolete notes and scrip of the various states. This is their effort on the big state of Texas and the challenge was capably met by Bob Medlar. It covers all aspects of Texas currency. Over 1,000 notes of the Republic of Texas and Confederate State periods, as well as those issued under Mexico, are listed.

One can well understand why eight years were spent in preparation of this now recognized standard work. Two hundred pages of information, most of which has never been readily available to collectors, and an equal number of good illustrations of notes issued by over 200 issuing authorities, make this a must for currency collectors. Added to this is a rarity scale and a valuation table.

FLORIDA OBSOLETE NOTES AND SCRIP by Harley L. Freeman, 103pp. Illustrated. Cloth cover. Society of Paper Money Collectors, P.O. Box 3005, Anderson, S.C. 29621. $4.75.

Somehow overlooked was the first of the Society of Paper Money Collectors efforts to completely revise Wismer listings of obsolete paper money. Eventually all the states listed in the Wismer listings that originally appeared in The Numismatist will be revised in separate book form. The work has been slow, but then the research has been thorough. This first SPMC endeavor by Harley L. Freeman is a perfect example.

The illustrations, like those in the Texas book, are superb. The format is repeated in all issues, thus giving continuity to the series. For the benefit of the collecting fraternity, let's all push for a completion of the series in the 1970s. This can only be accomplished by the support of serious collectors and the purchase of all issues. The price will not cause anyone to make an unwise decision.

THE OBSOLETE PAPER MONEY OF VIRGINIA, Vol. II, by Charles J. Affleck. 265pp. Illustrated. Cloth cover. Virginia Numismatic Association, P. O. Box 353, Hampton, Va. 23369. $12.50.

Volume I of Charles Affleck's master research, The Obsolete Paper Money of Virginia, was reviewed last year in the February issue of The Numismatist. We were complimentary, then, but the author repeated with as great a project for the second volume which covers the period 1804-1865 on obsolete banknotes. Volume II is a vivid and illustrative study on the paper money issued by the private banking houses of Virginia for the above mentioned time.

Each major variety is illustrated in every instance where there was a note or authentic photograph available to the author. Contemporary counterfeits, altered notes, altered raised notes, and spurious notes are included and described. Twenty full color plates reveal the true beauty of some of the notes used in a very colorful era. Affleck's presentation proves that numismatic standards needn't be dull. And this time it is the Virginia Numismatic Association that should be commended for making such work, often unprofitable financially, available to collectors and students.

MOEDA DE TIMOR by J. Ferraro Vaz. 171pp. Illustrated. Paper cover. Banco Nacional Ultramarino. Lisbon, Portugal.

Sandalwood brought the Portuguese to Timor in the early 16th century. They may not have liked what they saw, but recognized the potentiality of the fertile island. Then, too, this was the age of colonization. They established several outposts and the Dutch did likewise almost a century later. By treaty the island was divided and the Dutch portion eventually turned over to the Indonesian Republic on the latter's independence in 1949, but the Portuguese remained.

Regrettably, Moeda de Timor covers only the issues of the last century. The first three hundred years were omitted. It's a darn shame for one can wager that this would have been the only reference to cover such issues in depth. None-the-less the effort on the part of the Banco Nacional Ultramarino is commendable. The book was part of the centennial series published by the bank on the occasion of its centenary anniversary in 1964. The paper money is more than colorful in the book, it is exact reproductions faithfully copied to size and color. Plates are superb with the exception of the coin reproductions where the original photography left something to be desired. Oh yes, one other thing, it's published in Portuguese, but then who needs to know a language to look at pictures.

WORLD WAR II PRISONER OF WAR SCRIP OF THE UNITED STATES by Albert I. Donn. 111pp. Illustrated. Cloth cover. Krause Publications, Iola, Wis. 54945. $6.50.

This represents a first effort, and a commendable one, in a field never before covered. The author must have put uncounted hours into record research in compiling camp listings and ticket issues. This elusive money form was used in accordance with Geneva Treaty agreements requiring captors to provide their prisoners with monetary needs for health and comfort.

Donn's catalogue presentation is divided according to types of camps of issue — internment, prisoner of war, and Italian service units. The scrip listings are arranged according to state issues (and nearly every state had such issues), with full descriptions of the issues being provided. More than 100 types are illustrated.

NATIONAL BANKS OF THE NOTE ISSUING PERIOD 1863-1935 by Louis Van Belkum. 400pp. Illustrated. Cloth cover. Hewitt Numismatic Books, 7320 Milwaukee Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60648.

Back Through the Pages of Time For the Latest ANA Reprint

The Medals of China (1900) by J. A. Brudin is the latest ANA reprint. This fascinating reprint comes from an illustrated article submitted to The Numismatist in 1899, the 11th year of the ANA publication.

Many centuries before medals were struck by any other nation, the Chinese made use of charms and tokens for different purposes. These Yen Shing Tsien (money like coins) were chiefly manufactured by Buddhist priests and served a double function of being both religious fetishes and extra income.

After looking over the five pages of detailed illustrations accompanying this article, it is easy to understand the regard of beauty the Chinese held toward their written language. Used primarily as ornamentation, their written symbols or characters represent graceful reminders of their folklore and religion.

Half way through Brudin's reprint is his supplementary feature on Chinese medals. Denoting the felicity and warm nature exemplified by these people are good omen-inscribed charms such as "Happy New Year," "Long Life" and "May you be rich."

Brudin's publication would indeed be rewarding to the student of pictographs, phonemes and linguistics, as well as to the current numismatist. The reprint is available for 75¢ by writing the ANA librarian, American Numismatic Association, Box 2366, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80901.

LIBRARY REPORT

1970 Uncirculated Coin Sets

The Bureau of the Mint's policy is to produce and sell two types of coins sets annually. These are the uncirculated sets, which this column describes, and the proof coin sets. Uncirculated coin sets contain pieces manufactured for general circulation purposes. The best uncirculated coins are used in these sets, although the mint does not guarantee them to be entirely free of blemishes. Each set for 1970 will contain ten coins: five from the Denver Mint, 50¢, 25¢, 10¢, 5¢, and 1¢; three from the Philadelphia Mint, 25¢, 10¢, and 1¢; and two from the San Francisco Assay Office, 5¢ and 1¢.

The price of $2.50 per set includes first class registered mail fee and the maximum number again this year is five sets. Requests for uncirculated coin sets should be directed to the Officer in Charge, United States Assay Office, Numismatic Service, 350

Duboce Avenue, San Francisco, Cal. 94102, and should be accompanied by remittances in full in the form of a postal money order or a check made payable to the Officer in Charge, U.S. Assay Office, San Francisco, California. You are requested not to send cash.

As in the past, acceptance of all orders is contingent upon the mint's ability to meet the unpredictable demand. If the demand exceeds the supply, a cutoff date will be established. Orders are accepted commencing May 1 and they are processed in sequence according to the date received and filled as soon as possible after receiving the order. Due to the large volume of orders which must be processed, and depending upon the number ahead of yours, the delay could be six to eight months. Once you have ordered coin sets from the Assay Office, you will automatically receive order forms for the following year's coin sets issued by the Bureau of the Mint. Your name will be removed, however, if you fail to re-order the next year.

AUGUST WILLIAM HOFMAN

A Rare Medal Struck at the United States Mint

by David Wilcox and Wyndham Miles

Collectors may be interested in the story behind the rather rare medal struck at the United States Mint in Philadelphia in late 1883 or early 1884, in honor of the German chemist August Wilhelm von Hofmann.

The melter and refiner at the Philadelphia mint from 1849 to 1888 was James Curtis Booth. Booth (1810-1888) was one of the best-known chemists in the United States. He studied in the United States and Germany, he opened the first consulting chemist firm in the country in Philadelphia in 1836 (this is still in existence and may be the oldest such firm in the world), he taught chemistry at University of Pennsylvania and other institutions, he published several books and many articles on chemistry, and was thrice president of the American Chemical Society.

In 1883, during Booth's first term in office as president of the ACS, Augustus William Hofmann (or August Wilhelm von Hofmann in German) visited the United States. Hofmann came as one of a group of prominent German officials, journalists and personages, to witness completion of the Northern Pacific Railroad. The Northern Pacific owned huge tracts of land in the northwestern states. It wanted to encourage Europeans to emigrate to the area.

The railroad would receive income for the sale of the land, and income later from the shipment of agricultural products out of the region and manufactured goods into the region. The railroad therefore invited a number of prominent Germans to witness the driving of the last spike, it provided round-trip steamer passage from Bremen to New York, it set up a round-trip excursion from New York to Montana with sight-seeing stops at Niagara Falls and major cities, and it provided first-class hotel accommodations along the way. The railroad hoped that publicity of the trip in German newspapers and magazines would encourage immigration into the frontier states.

Hofmann (1818-1892) was invited because he was a privy counselor in the German government. In his own sphere he was one of the great European chemists of his generation. His work was well-known to American scientists through his books, articles and lectures. A number of American chemists who had studied in Europe were acquainted with Hofmann personally.

On Hofmann's return trip from the joining of the rails in Montana, he was invited to a banquet in New York, given by American chemists. Booth came from Philadelphia. Other chemists came from New Haven, Providence, and other cities. The celebration in the Hotel Brunswick, October 16, 1883, was a gourmet's delight, judging from a colorful menu still in existence at the Chemists Club, New York.

Hofmann sailed home a few days later. American chemists, perhaps at the suggestion of Booth, subscribed a fund to strike a medal to commemorate Hofmann's visit. Booth asked Charles E. Barber to design the medal. (Barber is well-known for his design of the Liberty Head dime, quarter dollar and half dollar.) One gold and 45 bronze copies were struck at the Philadelphia mint, 59mm in diameter. The gold and a bronze medal were sent to Hofmann, and a bronze medal to each of the 44 subscribers. Booth presumably received verbal permission from the director of the mint to produce the medal, for there is no mention of the medal in the mint records in the National Archives.

There were at least 46 Hofmann medals in existence in 1884, but we have located only two; one in the Smith Memorial Collection in History of Chemistry, University of Pennsylvania, and the other in the Chemists Club, New York. We have found no trace of the gold and bronze medals sent to Hofmann. Perhaps they lie buried under the rubble of World War II. There should be 44 bronze medals in the United States. A reasonable guess is that many are still in possession of descendants of chemists who subscribed to the medal in 1883.

RUSSIA

For Valorous Labor

A medal to commemorate the birthdate centennial of Lenin, the founder of the Soviet Union, has been established in the USSR (see Commemorative Medals of Lenin, page 785). The medal is in two forms — For Valorous Labor and For Combat Valor.

Novosti Press Agency has submitted the following information: "The medal is made of brass in the shape of a perfect circle with a 32mm diameter.

"The obverse of the medal shows a relief of Lenin's profile turned to the left, against a mat background, with the dates 1870-1970 below.

"The reverse of the medal has the inscription running along its circumference, 'For Valorous Labor' (left) or 'For Combat Valor' (right), with the hammer and sickle below and the inscription, 'In Commemoration of the 100th Birth Anniversary of V. I. Lenin.' In the lower part of the medal there is a small five-pointed star. All this is against a mat background.

"With the help of a tag and an oval link the medal is joined to a rectangular bar with depressions on the sides. There are slits along the bar foundation and the middle of the bar is covered with an inch-wide red water silk ribbon. The ribbon has four yellow lengthwise stripes — two in the middle and one on each side. On the obverse side the bar has a pin for fastening the medal to clothes."

The Coin Clubs of Guam, Box 3096, Agana, Guam, 96910, have issued the third in their series of medals commemorating important events in the history of Guam. The obverse features Aequitas holding the scales of Justice, a quotation by Abraham Lincoln, and a legend about elective government — 1970. The reverse is common to the whole series. It shows a typical Guam beach scene with rising sun and the notation — "Where America's Day Begins." The medal is 39mm in size and struck in antique bronze ($2.00), semi-matte nickel ($1.50), golden bronze ($1.00), and .925 silver (available only as set $13.75).

Shane's Castle is featured on the Greater Mansfield Philatelic and Numismatic Society's second historical medal. The 34mm piece was struck in nickel silver ($1.25) and antique nickel silver ($1.25). 500 of each variety were made. These can be ordered direct from the club, P.O. Box 471, Mansfield, Ohio 44901. Add 15c postage for each medal.

The Daniel Boone Festival, held at Barboursville, Ky., in 1969, issued a commemorative medal for the 200th anniversary of Boone's rediscovery of the state. He had been there a few years earlier, but it was in 1769 that he began extensive exploration, trapping and hunting. The state has been stressing "Rediscover Kentucky" for the tourists. Struck by the Franklin Mint in various metals, 39mm in size, collectors may write to the Boone Festival Committee, Box 779, Barboursville, Ky. 40906 for further details.

The Ann Arbor Coin Club issued a medal for its coin show last fall. The obverse of the 34mm piece showed the club emblem, while the reverse carried a scroll and the quote, "To Increase Knowledge In The Science of Numismatics." The medal is the result of a club contest. Available in antique bronze ($1.25), and sterling

Montgomery, Alabama, observed its 150th anniversary in 1969 and to mark the event a commemorative series of four medals was issued in nickel silver and sterling silver. Saturday, final day of the St. Louis convention, will be a busy day for most ANA members. And starting it off bright (we hope) and early (we are sure) will be the traditional Club Representatives Breakfast. It will be open to all members and their guests, although the representatives of member clubs are the ones who are urged to attend and take part.

Clubs whose representatives will be present should be sure to instruct them as to reports to be made and matters to be brought to the assembly's attention. Representatives are urged to "speak up" but to be prepared so as to consume as little time as possible in making their points. Invariably there are so many who wish to be heard that time runs out, so please consider your fellow representative's right to be heard.

The highlight of the meeting, following a satisfying breakfast, is usually the presentation of the annual "Outstanding Club Representative Award." No announcement of who the recipient will be is made in advance so this is a surprise performance to all. Each member club is entitled to nominate its representative and give his qualifications to Adna G. Wilde, executive director, in advance, and from these nominees the award winner is selected.

The breakfast will be served at 8:00 a.m. and everyone is urged to be on time. (What is less tasty than a cold breakfast?) Tickets will be available through advance registration by mail or at the registration desk during the early days of the convention. Cost of tickets is $3.60 each. Governor Glenn Smedley, chairman of the District Representative and Membership Committee, will conduct the meeting. To allow more time for this event for club representatives, the DRs will have their own breakfast on another day.

Weslaco, Texas, home of the editor of TNA News, Miriam Gilmore, celebrated its 50th year in 1969 and to mark the event issued a commemorative medal in bronze ($1.50), and silver ($7.50), 34mm in diameter. The obverse shows the town's city hall and fire station; the reverse, a wreath with appropriate dates. Orders can be sent to 50th Anniversary Celebration, P. O. Drawer 995, Weslaco, Texas.

Litchfield, Minnesota celebrated its centennial in 1969 by placing 2500 50c trade tokens in circulation. The obverse bore the official emblem of the observance and the reverse redemption information. Collectors may obtain copies for 50c plus postage from Litchfield Centennial Headquarters, Litchfield, Minn. 55355.

CENTURY OLD NOTES

"At the annual meeting of the New England Numismatic and Archaeological Society held on Tuesday evening, March 17, Mr. Chaplin showed an American half-dollar of 1827 which was obtained by a ship captain from 'King Jimmy,' as he was called, a native chief on the coast of Africa. This dusky monarch had received the coin in the way of his regular business, which was negotiating livestock, in other words, disposing of his fellow citizens for a consideration — and this particular piece was the liberal proceeds of his sale of a likely boy belonging to one of his neighbors. A suitable inscription was engraved on the reverse of the coin in commemoration of the event."

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF AUCTION SALE DATE

Due to the Recent Postal Strike
THE PUBLIC & MAIL BID AUCTION SALE of
The Frederick S. Knobloch Collection of Greek Coins

originally scheduled for April 29, 30, 1970

WILL NOW TAKE PLACE
JUNE 10, 11, 1970

The Frederick S. Knobloch Collection consists of 46 Gold and Electrum and 626 Silver and Bronze coins, and is the largest collection of quality Greek coins offered in the U.S.A. for sale in the last few decades. It was formed by Frederick S. Knobloch, a collector and dealer of great renown. For the most part this collection was assembled through the years using the finest specimens which Mr. Knobloch encountered.

The collection is remarkable from two points of view. First it covers geographically the whole Greek World, from Spain till Bactria and from Egypt to Mauretania. There are coins from Cities which are lesser known to collectors and many coins seem to be unpublished.

But it is the high standard of preservation of this collection which makes it important, some of the coins having been purchased from Dr. Jacob Hirsch's private cabinet. There are superb series of 25 Tarentian didrachms. Tetradrachms of Agrigentum, Gela, Messana, Leontini and about 25 Tetradrachms of Syracuse, many of them in gem condition. There is the rare Drachm of Athens from the 6th century, known as "Wappenmünz", an Archaic Tetradrachm and 9 others, all in choice condition.

A selected series of Roma-Alexandrian coins include 4 Bronzes of Antinous and many rarities. The large issues are represented by a magnificent Dekadrachm of Carthage.

The excessively rare gold stater showing a ship of the tribe Menapii is the highlight of the Gallic series. There is a gold Distater and 11 Staters of Alexander the Great, and several rare Electrum coins of Cyzicus.

In addition to the Knobloch Collection, our sale will include a small but prominent collection of the late Mr. Kenneth C. Richmond. It consists of only 4 Gold, 26 Silver, and 3 Bronze coins, but there is hardly a coin which would not be desirable for the most sophisticated collections. There is one of the finest artistic Greek coins, the Tetradrachm of Aenus, showing facing head of Hermes, in Extremely Fine condition, another Tetradrachm with facing head of Helios, of Rhodus almost Uncirculated, and many other Uncirculated Tetradrachms and Staters.

Whitman is proud to present another classic in its line of numismatic reference books—Eric P. Newman's "The Early Paper Money of America". Never before has there been a book of this scope available to collectors, historians and lovers of Americana.

Current values of all collectible notes have been compiled by Richard Picker and Ben Douglas.

Do you have choice rare coins for sale? WE WANT TO BUY!

To build our stock and to fill our customers' want lists we URGENTLY want to buy choice U.S. coins. Our large volume of sales makes it possible for us to operate on a low overhead resulting in a higher offer for your coins.

Over the years it has been our pleasure to have handled many of the finest collections to be sold in America and Europe—including nearly every rarity in the Guidebook. But, you don't have to have one of the finest collections in existence or have great rarities to sell to us. On the contrary, we're receptive to any individual coins worth $10 each or more.

Below we give a want list of the items we are seeking. If you have coins ON THIS LIST you may ship them to us by insured or registered mail. Q. David Bowers of our staff will personally make you an offer for them. If our offer is accepted your payment in full will be sent immediately. If you say "no," then the coins will be returned at our expense. It may interest you to know that over 90% of the offers we make are accepted. We are SERIOUS BUYERS OF QUALITY MATERIAL.

Thinking of selling? Whether you have $50 worth of coins or $500,000 worth, think of Hathaway and Bowers Galleries, Inc. You'll like the way we do business. Check over the list of items we need. Then ship us a package of coins for our top cash offer. We both lose if you go elsewhere. Over the years we have purchased millions of dollars worth of coins from collectors such as yourself. Wanted For Immediate Cash — The Following Coins:

ISRAEL PIDYON Ha-Ben Cover

For the first time in the history of philatelic-numismatic-combination (P-N-C) covers a simultaneous issue date for both an Israel Coin (The much talked about new 10 pound Pidyon Ha-Ben) and a stamp issue (The Magic Carpet 20th Anniversary) has been put together in what surely will be the most talked about cover of 1970.

This is the largest value coinage of Israel or any other country to appear in a P-N-C cover. Its beauty and uniqueness certainly combine to make it a very worthwhile addition to any P-N-C collection or any collection of Israel material or Judaica. The obverse of the coin features the emblem of the State on a shield, with the year of issue and value also stated. The reverse shows a schematic rendering of the accepted motif of the Tables of the Law. Underneath, in three lines, in stylized Hebrew letters, the quotation: "All the first born of thy sons thou shalt redeem." Exodus 34.20.

Only 1000 of these coin covers have been produced and no more can ever be available. For this reason, all orders are limited to a maximum of three covers per person.

World's Largest And Oldest Manufacturer of Quality Plastic Holders

The LOMBARDO MINT HONORS EISENHOWER

Extremely High Relief

The Lombardo Mint, in keeping with its fine tradition for supplying the collector with high quality commemorative medallions, released a medal in remembrance of the late general and president, Dwight David Eisenhower. The silver dollar sized medallion was designed and sculptured by Mr. Arnaldo Marchetti, the distinguished sculptor of the Richard M. Nixon medallion.

The obverse of this special striking displays the bust of General Eisenhower in an extremely high relief which is always distinctive of Lombardo Mint issues.

The reverse appears relatively simple in design but upon careful inspection one will discover the delicately engraved figures which give this medal its additional historical significance. Strikings are only available in Proof-like Bronze at $2.00 and in .999 Frosted Proof Silver at $10.00. Special 24kt Gold strikings may be purchased by residents of Canada or other countries where laws allow the importation of gold medallions.

Gordian III, Roman Emperor, A.D. 238-244

Gordian III, at the early age of about 13 years, was proclaimed emperor of Rome in the year A. D. 238, the sixth to hold this title during that turbulent year, and reigned until deposed and murdered in A. D. 244 due to treachery on the part of M. Julius Philippus, the praetorian prefect.

The following twelve silver denarii represent each type of the regular issue struck for Gordian III. Each piece has the obverse legend "IMP. GORDIANVS PIVS FEL. AVG.", with emperors bust, laureate, draped and cuirassed to right; the reverse legend and subject is as noted for each piece listed. Each coin offered is a carefully graded VF. P. O. BOX 5980

BETHESDA, MD. 20014

The above address is not an error, because as of June 1st, 1970 I am going to change to a strictly mail order business. Am doing this on the advice of my doctor who suggested that I slow down my pace. Will still issue my usual quota of price lists and still continue giving good service along with reasonable prices.

Have sold my business, everything went except for my stock of coins and currency. Am keeping all my stock in a bank vault and be doing business from a P. O. Box. Will also be able to take in more shows and conventions and take many more vacations, which was hard to do when you have a coin shop and also doing a mail order business. Want to thank my area customers for putting up with me for the past 20 years and hope to be able to serve most of you thru the mail.

TOKYO OLYMPICS

Pure Silver Medal

Among all modern medallic pieces struck to celebrate Olympic Games, this one stands out in its class. Issued as part of the Argenteus collection, it is devoted to the 1964 Tokyo Olympics. Its design clearly shows the timeless touch of the artist. It faithfully captures the mystic beauty of the Orient. The delicate lines of this modern masterpiece have the softness of flowing silk. It will have special appeal to those who treasure more the slender grace of oriental pagodas than the massive art of gothic cathedrals. To the romantic-minded, it may suggest a trembling dewdrop, ready to fall, or the captivating charm of feminine fragility. It is comforting to see that from the fathomless depth of the human creative mind such visions of beauty are forever emerging.

Even if you are more in love with the sensuous feel of wealth in the pure, gleaming silver than with the enduring beauty of the artist's dream forever bonded to the noble metal, you will treasure this medallic piece. Our "TOKYO OLYMPICS" medal in pure silver, brilliant proof, is available in two sizes: 50mm at $10; or 35mm at $5. Postpaid, satisfaction guaranteed.

Our cabinet has other outstanding medallic pieces but our specialized field is coins of the world with heavy emphasis on Crowns and Commemoratives. We will be happy to send you a free copy of our latest List. Just write for it. No obligation, of course.
